

NASMDA Registration Application

Before you send in your paperwork, please read the Registration FAQ's.

REQUIREMENTS:

- You MUST be a CURRENT NASMDA Member
- Registration Fees must accompany application
- Application must be complete
- One photocopy of each parent's registration if registered in another association
- Four good quality, clear color photos showing the animal to be registered from each side, front, and rear, without tack. Photos no larger than 3-1/2" x 5". If animal has brand, close-up photo of brand must accompany application.
- Each animal offered for registration must be given a name acceptable to NASMDA, not exceeding 25 letters including spaces, and must not conflict with any other registered NASMDA animal.
- Print or type all information on this form. Any erasures or alteration on this form may necessitate verification or a new application.
- All junior animals (5 years and under) must have either a mouthing certificate or breeders certificate.

Death of a Registered Animal

When any registered animal dies or is disposed of, the owner shall notify NASMDA and surrender the registration certificate to NASMDA for such notation. The registration certificate will be changed to note the animal's death and returned to said owner, unless otherwise noted with the registration.
